CANCER AND LEPROSY.

A Theory That Connects These Diseases With Blackheads.
 A French surgeon named Borrel has recently delivered a lecture at the Ecole de Medecin in Paris, in course of which he advanced a novel theory concerning cancer and leprosy. He declares it to be his belief that the bacillus of either malady is concealed in the black pinheads or blackheads which often disfigure our faces and from which, particularly in the nose and chin, scarcely any one is entirely free. When extracted these pinheads or blackheads have the appearance of little worms. They consist of what is known as sebaceous matter, this matter being produced from certain glands with the object of supplying the skin with its due quantity of oil.
 Dr. Borrel has been experimenting and has found, with the aid of a very powerful microscope, that this seba-ceous matter never always contains a bacillus which is cancerous or crab-like in form.

After the age of fifty most persons, male as well as female, throw off much of this sebaceous matter in the ordinary process of aging. The face and chest in particular exude most seba-ceous matter. It is about this age, declares Borrel, that cancerous developments begin to make their appearance, and the coincidence is worth remarking.
 Elitherto heretofore has been charged with being the real promoter of cancerous and leprosy virus, it being asserted that the insidious conditions of former ages were responsible for bringing the bacillus into being. The Mechanician theories of microcopy and macrocopy have, however, thrown new light upon the subject.
 Given the theory, moreover, of Baeck-el's-to wit, that the intelligence of all living organisms is matter how small, enables them to secure the best opportunities for survival-it is conceivable that the crab bacillus of cancer may have found the sebaceous matter in the face the best region in which to promote his happiness and propagate his species.

Dr. Borrel advises those whose face and body are disfigured by blackheads to have a solution of salicylic acid in from 2 to 3 per cent of salicylic acid in his, says an excellent preventive. Lemon juice is also good. -New York

The Interior of the Earth.
 The University of Jena has just awarded the prize for the best essay on the condition of the interior of the earth. M. Thiene, who was the University of Jena's prize, did it with the following theory:
 "The mean density of the earth is known to be more than five times that of water. As the outer layers of the crust have a very feeble density-water 1, rocks an average of 2.5-it follows that the interior must have a density of about 7.7, which is that of iron. Again, there is enough accurate information about the rigidity of the earth to make it fairly certain that this is slightly greater than steel. M.
 Thiene calculates that the crust of the earth is about 350 miles thick, though most of the best authorities are inclined to place it at about thirty miles.
 If his figures be correct, there must be inside the crust an exceedingly dense and rigid core, which he calls his sphere.-New York World."

Where Tipping Is Barred.
 Tourists generally will be interested in the new regulations in force on the German railways. They are drastic, which is not an unusual quality in German rules, and on the whole they seem to be just and practical. Tipping of railway employees on trains is prohibited; passengers giving tips will be punished. The railways will be responsible for passengers' baggage for fourteen days and at all times responsible for luggage lost. Children over ten years will not be permitted to travel in compartments reserved for other people. If a train is full a traveler, although he may have a ticket, may be compelled to wait for the next train.
 A friend taking leave of a traveler and remaining in the train until it moves will have to pay a fine of $1.00.-Milwaukee Wisconsin.

Animals as Seismometers.
 Animals have again, in Sicily and Calabria, shown that they know more about coming earthquakes than men know. An official at Messina was worried by his dog on the eve of the disaster. The animal would stay quiet for a moment, and his barking was such a nuisance that his master beat the wise brute. Their night was so restless that the man gave up all hope of sleep, and he and the dog left home soon after 4:30 a. m. As soon as the dog was out of doors he ran away, and the master followed him. Thus both were well outside the town when the crash came, and the man acknowledges that he owes his escape from (probable) death to his good, surly dog.-Dundee Advertiser.

The Next Problem of Invention.
 Certainly plenty of rubbish is being talked about aeroplanes. England, for south, is to be de-laid in a year or two by the Zeppelins. Perhaps Mars is not safe from the intrusions of the aviators. We foretell that in a short time the new terror will be a subterranean ship, which will sail through the earth as easily as the others sail through the water and air.-London

Controverted Elections.
NEED FOR A PUBLIC PROSECUTOR--SEATS IN PARLIAMENT NOW TREATED AS PRIVATE PROPERTY.

Ottawa, Oct. 10.-The unsatisfactory termination of the Petoboro election trial shows how urgently the present method of enforcing the Election Act need be revised. To tamper with an election unquestionably is a public crime. The bribing of electors, the manipulation of honest ballots that have been cast, all the schemes devised by clever rascals to prevent the opinion of the majority from prevailing, are offenses against the public welfare, and should be punished by the public, not by the courts.
 An elector should be punished by the State just as assault and battery on the same man would be.
 The stealing of an elector's vote should be prevented by the State even as the stealing of his pocketbook. Yet the State does nothing of the sort. It treats the right to sit in Parliament as private property, and if one candidate thinks that he is cheating he can sue for redress; he has to pay the cost of the lawsuit, and the whole thing is conducted on the same basis as if it were a real estate deal, and as if the right to be an M.P. and the right to possess a given corner lot were on the same footing.

The natural result is that the political parties which sue each other for seats in the House of Commons behave just as ordinary litigants do. They push proceedings when it will pay them, and drop them when they will not pay them; they compromise when it is to their advantage to do so, and they no more consider the interests of the public than do the two men who are at law over a corner lot. The public makes no complaint when the men who are suing each other over real estate transactions come to terms, but when the two parties elect a member of the House of Commons, and out of there is an outcry. Unquestionably the saw-off, and such unsatisfactory affairs as the Peto-boro, where there are numerous allegations of bribery, where there is manifest gross im-perjury, and where there is a compromise, are bad for the country; but as the country is not spending its own money, and the party politicians concerned are obliged to rely on their own bank account, it is hard to say how the public can blame them.

The only way out is to adopt Mr. R. L. Borden's proposal that the State should take the matter into charge. It has long been suggested that the appointment of a Public Prosecutor for elections. Let a man of high character and of satisfactory impartiality be appointed; let him be given a status like that of the Auditor-General, so as to be independent of pressure from either party; and let him be charged with the duty of watching all elections and of intervening and prosecuting whenever there is manifest gross improprieties. Mr. Borden incorporated this plan in his Halifax platform. He urged it in his public addresses. In the House of Commons he repeatedly urged its adoption. He has now, it is said, written a pamphlet on the subject, and as a result we are still going on in the old way, treating a seat in Parliament as private property to be fought for, litigated over, and compromised about like any other piece of property. To Mr. Borden's idea the country must come.

A Conservative Convention.
 TORONTO NEWSPAPER DEMANDS A NATIONAL GATHERING OF THE PARTY.

A demand for a national convention of the Conservative party appears in the Toronto News.
 "There is a far from healthy cohesion in an Opposition that there is in a governing organization," it says. "Ministers are in constant touch with all parts of the country. Generally leaders of Opposition are known only in their own Provinces, and they meet the people only during the few heated weeks in which a general election is in progress. It is difficult under such circumstances to develop sound leaders, or to infuse unity and energy into a party organization."

After citing the examples of the United States and Great Britain, the News continues: "Here we have an enormous stretch of territory, a widely scattered population, and few, if any, national organs of opinion. The result is that an Opposition is in danger of developing provincial tendencies, or pursuing different courses in different provinces, and of exalting sectional rather than national leadership. This must be hurtful to the prospects of a national party when the issue is tried out by the country."
 "Moreover, the Canada of today is not the Canada of twelve or fifteen or twenty years ago.
 The day is past in which any province can be the absolute master of its political destinies of this country. Population is reaching out into Northern Ontario and a new wave of rising in the West. The time has gone in which we had only to consider the interests or the prejudices of Ontario and Quebec.

 The West will soon rank in political importance with either of these two provinces, and the fact must be recognized by any party which aims to be powerful in the future. Are we wise to persevere in the perverse notion that we can still ally with the Canadian people to take an interest in the ownership of the northern regions; it further directs attention once more to the manner in which a serious national duty has been performed. At the back of the whole episode of the Arctic and her cruises is the very important fact that American trading vessels had begun to conduct themselves as if Canada had no jurisdiction upon her Arctic coast line, and as if the United States had equal right there. Described as whaling vessels, these ships took up cargoes of goods suitable for trading with the natives, equipped hunting parties, and bartered for the furs which the natives procured; there was also some supplying of liquor to the natives, with the usual consequence of demoralization. If Canada was not to allow her ownership of that part of her coastline to go by default, it was necessary to place these people under control, and the Arctic was sent north for that purpose.
 The Government proudly states she would not cost more than $10,500 a year.

The way in which the Marine and Fisheries Department carried out this duty was remarkable.
 It crammed the ship with supplies, necessary and unnecessary.
 It bought $24,000 worth of clothing for 34 men, or at the rate of $700 each. It bought pemmican at $1.25 a pound when it could have procured it at 25 cents a pound. It bought tobacco at $1.34 a pound when the proper price was 67 cents a pound or just half what was paid. The ship took 8 years' supply of fancy biscuits; 7 1-2 years' supply of saucers; 24 years' supply of sweet chocolate; 17 1-2 years' supply of vermouth; 12 years' supply of sago, and so forth. The provisions actually amounted to between $20,000 and $70,000. Altogether her first cruise cost about a quarter of a million dollars. Even so she did little or no work. She carried a detachment of Mounted Police for the purpose of asserting British sovereignty, but Captain Bernier did not get on with the officer in command of the Police, and the Mounted Police since then have conducted their work independently of the Department of Marine and Fisheries; and incidentally have done it efficiently. The Arctic practically lost her first cruise.

This is the way in which an important national duty was undertaken. To expedite the necessary, and the middlemen were allowed to fatten themselves upon it to an extent which inflated the expense from an estimated $10,500 a year to about $200,000, while the first voyage of this expensive vessel was practically a dead loss. It remains to be seen what has been accomplished in this last voyage of the Arctic.

Western Provinces to Control School Lands.

Winnipeg, Oct. 8.-"The governments of the three western provinces have decided to make a united appeal to the Ottawa authorities for the right to administer their own school and school lands funds."
 This interesting announcement was made by Hon. George R.
 Caldwell, minister of education for Manitoba, who returned last night from Regina, where he was in conference with Premier Rutherford of Alberta, and Hon.
 J. A. Calder, minister of education of Saskatchewan, on the subject.

The whole question was discussed thoroughly, and the three cabinet ministers resolved to urge the co-operation of their governments in securing legislation towards the desired end.

THE HUDSON BAY RAILWAY

The people of the west are almost a unit on the early construction of the Hudson Bay Railway, and the Dominion Government will do well to at once lay plans for a vigorous campaign for next year. It is high time this question was taken out of the sphere of practical politics and the people given a fair deal. The people do not care a cent whether Churchill or Nelson is the terminus of the road; what they want is an outlet for their grain. Certainly the government should be able to select the most advantageous location, but that is a matter of detail. The people have spoken, the proposed railway has done duty as a political card for the last twenty years, now let something be done. The boards of trade throughout the west are taking the matter up and will make themselves felt. It may be interesting to know that the Dominion Government declares the road will be built so soon as the port is decided on. A hundred miles or so could be constructed next year and the road completed in 1911, then the necessary elevators and terminal facilities for loading grain could be ready for traffic not later than July, 1912. At the last general election the Government promised to build the road and own it; the people agreed to this and they are now awaiting the fulfillment of that promise. Let the road be built at once.

ALBERTA LEADS THEM ALL

G. A. Porter writes from Corvallis, Oregon, stating that of all the places he had seen since leaving Red Deer, in British Columbia, Washington and Oregon, Alberta is as good or better than the best and he will likely come back again in the spring. Lots of people in Oregon have the Alberta fever and quite a lot are coming here in the spring; others will come as soon as they can sell out. There are a very few nice places there, writes Mr. Porter. Farmers have to sow vetch and oats for hay every year, although they are getting some sense and are going in for clover and alfalfa. No rain there since March, except a shower on the 5th of July, and a couple of showers, one in August and one in September, until fall rains commenced Oct. 1st.

MARS ONLY 34 MILLION MILES AWAY.

To those who are interested in viewing Mars, now plainly visible during cloudless nights in the southeastern horizon, says a Chicago paper, it may be of interest to know that the mean distance of Mars from the sun is 141,000,000 miles, but now it is at perihelion, and is but 128,000,000 miles from the sun, and the earth is at aphelion, about 94,000,000 miles from the sun, which is the nearest approach to each other, about 34,000,000 miles. This favorable opportunity for astronomical observations will not occur again for seventy-nine years.

The police arrested some gamblers at Lacombe during the fair and the papers have been full of the wonderful manner in which that town dealt with those gamblers. But this was not done until a number of farmers had been robbed of sums of money and the police even had money thrust into their hands as a bribe to keep quiet. Such gentry dare not show their nose in Red Deer. They would not be allowed at our fair. They would be arrested at once if they tried to practise their slick games on the people of our town. Lacombe is only now beginning to learn it does not pay to allow these slick gents to rob the people.

A QUESTION OF RELATIONSHIP.

The lawyer eyed the women in the witness box in patient despair. Then, on the authority of a writer in the Detroit News, he rallied visibly: "You say, madam," he began, "that the defendant is a 'sort of relation' of yours. Will you please explain what you mean by that—just how you are related to the defendant?" "Well, it's like this," replied the witness, beaming upon the court. "His first wife's cousin and my second cousin's first wife's aunt married brothers named Jones, and they were cousins to my mother's aunt. Then again, his grandfather on his mother's side and my grandfather on my mother's side were second cousins, and his step-mother married my husband's stepfather after his father and my mother died, and his brother Joe and my husband's brother Harry married twin sisters. I ain't ever figured out just how close related we are, but I've always looked on him as a sort of cousin." "Quite right," assented the lawyer, feebly.

Names Omitted by Mistake.

In the account of the Kennedy-McCune wedding, published two weeks ago, the following names were omitted from the list of those who gave presents: Miss S. Watt, sofa pillow; Mr. and Mrs. A. Martin, half-dozen silver tea spoons; Mr. and Mrs. J. Martin, silver and pearl butter knife; Mr. and Mrs. M. McDougall, lemonade set; Miss A. McDougall, tea pot; Mr. J. Martin, Winnipeg, Man., carving set; Miss M. Telling, salad dish and plate; Miss M. Cary, silver meat fork; Miss M. McDougall, glass butter dish; Mr. R. and Miss M. Lund, half-dozen silver tea spoons; Miss M. Martin, New Westminster, linen table cloth and one dozen napkins; Miss M. Reid, Vancouver, B.C., set carvers and bed spread; Miss S. Martin, silver bread plate; Miss M. McKinney, 5 o'clock tea cloth; Miss L. Lund, 5 o'clock tea cloth; Mr. D. McKinnon, Inspector of Public Works, cheque for $30.00; Rev. and Mrs. Gosling, china sugar bowl and cream pitcher; Mr. and Mrs. D. Clausen, china pitcher and sugar bowl; Watt Bros., brass rug; Miss E. Watt, water pitcher; Mrs. Dingman, towels; Mr. and Mrs. Lewis, china sugar bowl; Mr. and Mrs. A. Gehrke, set glassware; Mr. H. Smith, out glass berry bowl; Mr. and Mrs. C. McDougall, white bed spread.

Presenting of the Michener Cup.

Mr. Editor:— Would you be kind enough to allow me a small space to reply to that letter of W. Hadley's in regard to the Michener Cup and Snell Shield? Now Hadley infers that the cup and shield has not been presented because the representatives of the Fire Brigade team did not turn up when the secretary of the executive called a meeting and wonders if it is because they did not win the cup. If W. Hadley had been the sport that he dubs himself, he would have been fair enough (the foundation of all sport) to find out if the Brigade was represented at the meetings before casting such a slur. As a matter of fact, Mr. Editor, they have been represented at every meeting except the last one, I believe; they did not join the league for the cup but for the sport; if they won the cup well and good, as the Town team won it they have the congratulations of the Brigade and hope to have the pleasure of running up against them next year. As to the presenting of the cup the Brigade team will be glad to assist at whatever is decided, but we certainly do object to such slurs as no sport would cast. H. MEERES.

Cure That Obstinate Sore.

Where Ordinary Salves Fail Zam-Buk Succeeds.

Chronic sores, which cause trouble by "breaking open," may be cured by Zam-Buk, as well as recent injuries and diseases. If you suffer from some old sore—hidden, perhaps, but none the less painful for that—don't delay, apply Zam-Buk's healing essence as directed in Zam-Buk. Mrs. I. E. Ashion, of 111, Victoria Street, Fort William, tells how valuable Zam-Buk is as a family balm. She says: "We first used Zam-Buk for cuts and bruises, etc., and found it so satisfactory that my husband started using it for a chronic sore. For a long time he had been bothered with an old sore on his leg, and had used various preparations yet nothing had permanently cured it. He began applying Zam-Buk balm, and was very soon greatly surprised to notice a great improvement. It was only a matter of a short time before Zam-Buk had thoroughly cleansed the sore of all foul matter and healing commenced. It is now some months since the sore was completely closed, and there is no likelihood of it breaking out again." "Since then my baby, eighteen months old, has been cured of eczema on the scalp by Zam-Buk. This eczema came in red pimples, and if rubbed or scratched, formed into sores. The child was very fretful from the irritation of the scalp, but whenever Zam-Buk was applied it seemed to bring the greatest relief. Frequent applications were effective in clearing all traces of the disease from the baby's scalp in a short space of time. I feel it my duty to give the credit where due, and I cheerfully recommend Zam-Buk to all sufferers from chronic sores, bad leg or eczema." "Zam-Buk is Nature's own healing balm, being composed of pure herbal essences. It is a sure cure for eczema, ringworm, ulcers, cuts, burns, bruises, poisoned sores, chronic wounds, bad leg, piles, festering sores, chapped hands, cold-sores, frost-bite, and all skin injuries and diseases. Druggists and stores everywhere sell at 50c. a box, or post free for price from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto; 3 boxes $1.25. You are warned against harmful imitations represented to be 'just as good'.

PREMIER SODAS

"The flour and lard used in any sodas may be good, but that is not all that is wanted in a satisfying biscuit—it is not all that Foley's Sodas give. Good flavor is essential. In securing the good flavor of Foley's Sodas we recognize the importance of a perfectly-operating yeast. We take no chances with our yeast. We could buy it from outside makers at less cost, but we do not do so—all the yeast used in Foley's Sodas is made in our own factory and by securing perfect working of that yeast, we get the delightful flavor for which Foley's Sodas are famous. Never sour, never flat or pasty—always sweet, crisp and good all the way through."

THE SPANIARD.

His Primitive Instincts of Hospitality and Charity.

Havelock Ellis in his "Soul of Spain" has revealed intimately and charmingly by the temperament of the Spanish people. According to him, the Spaniard is still fundamentally primitive. In proof of his possession of the primal instincts of hospitality and charity he quotes the following anecdote from an Aragonese newspaper of a few years ago. A man with whom there was much distress in Aragon: A laborer out of work came on the highroad determined to rob the first person he met. This was a man with a wagon. The laborer bade him halt and demanded his money.

"Here is $30, all that I have," the detained man replied. "There is nothing left for me but robbery. My family are dying of hunger," the aggressor said apologetically and proceeded to put the money in his pocket, but as he did so his mind changed.

"Take this, chico," he said, handing back $20. "One is enough for me."

"Would you like anything I have in the cart?" asked the wagoner, impressed by this generosity.

"Yes," said the man. "Take this dollar back too. I had better have some rice and some beans."

The wagoner handed over a bag of oatmeal and then held out $5, which, however, the laborer refused.

"Take them for luck money," said the wagoner. "I owe you that."

And only after this would he be persuaded to accept.

THE BABY CROP.

Worth More Than All Other Crops as a National Asset.

When you come to think of it, there's no escaping the conclusion that the baby crop is worth more to this good country of ours than all the corn, wheat, cotton, beef and poultry products put together—worth more in dollars and cents. Outrightly, the baby crop, the wheat, the corn, the green apples and all the other crop and animal sources couldn't work so great a national disaster as a genuine baby famine.

And it is simply appalling to think what would happen to our national temperance if babies were abolished. Our sense of humor would instantly go glimmering, and smiles would become rarer than black blockheads. The education parents in the little arts of tenderness would go into instant decline, and we would speedily become a nation of ossified hearts and sour faces.

Babies are the chief apostles of unselfish affection. All the world admits that. The mother who has constantly maintained an attitude of motherly selfishness toward all the world will go to the depths of self denial and sacrifice for the helpless child, and men of fiery and autocratic temperament become meek and plastic disciples in schools of patience and restraint where in their own babies are the teachers and disciplinarians.—Red Book.

Gloom Spread by Book Agents.

"When I was a small boy living in Huntsville, Mo., an early day book agent came up from St. Louis by steamboat and flooded our country with a hawking volume entitled 'Agnes—The Key to Her Coffin.' Every body bought the thing and everybody wept over it," remarked a Macdonald resident. "Its influence descended upon the community like a nightmare. It reeked with shrouds, funerals and graveyards. For a long while 'The Key to Agnes' Coffin' was the sole diversion of certain portions of the populace. They seemed to take a pure and chastened joy in the awful weight of we that oozed out from between its lids and it made them feel better. There were not many books in the country in those days, and the sagacious agent had sized the community's taste up about right. The book was supposed to be very consoling to the distressed in that it told of worse troubles than their own."—Macdonald Republican.

The Scent of Books.

The publisher shut his eyes. "Bring me books," he said, "and by the smell alone I'll tell what country each was published in." He did indeed distinguish in this manner a French, an English and an American book. "English books have the best smell," he said. "French come next. Our own come last. Our own smell salty. The others smell fresh and sweet. Have a try?" The skeptical clubmen in their seats, snuffing the books, were soon able in their turn to distinguish them by the odor.—Exchange.

Death Valley.

Death valley is a desert valley in Inyo county, Cal., lying between the Panamint range on the west and the Funeral, Amargosa and Grapevine ranges on the east. Much of the valley is below sea level, and there are only a few places where ordinary drinkable water can be obtained. The valley was formerly the bed of a salt lake along the east side.

If this cannot be granted, making it necessary to install a private septic tank, then he asked to be released from future franchise tax.

The Western Gen. Elec. Co. wrote presuming that they had received 60 per cent. share of the water rates paid by users of water, and asked for the balance due them in respect to the special water works tax which the Town levied against Town property and which is collected from persons who are not connected with the service. The company cited authority for making this claim.

Moved by Councillors T. A. Gaetz and McKee that the application of W. E. Lord for exemption from franchise tax, as per letter of Sept. 29, be not allowed owing to the inability of the Council to grant exemption in such cases, and that he be allowed to install a septic tank. Carried.

Councillor T. A. Gaetz and Councillor McKee moved that the Commissioners with the solicitors be instructed to reply to letter of Western General Electric Co. dated Sept. 28th. Carried.

COMMISSIONER'S REPORT.

We recommend that the deposit of McKee & Cruickshank on their tender for new office building be returned to them, as we are withholding 20 per cent. of the amount for work done pending completion of building.

We ask your authorization of the securing advice on the telephone question from R. B. Bennett, G. C. and from W. L. Walcott, K.C., which advice has been submitted to you. The Offices and Police Station were moved to the new building on Sept. 30. We had the old offices cleaned up, and the cells removed from the old Police Station, as required by the lease with C. K. Wright.

We have inspected the streets and sidewalks, and given orders to have the old sidewalks overhauled and repaired. We will have all crossings fixed up and the hydrants protected against frost. The work on the sewer and waterworks extensions have been completed, and all connections for which we have had applications installed, so that by the end of the month we hope to have all outside work completed and everything in shape for winter.

We received from J. L. Crawford cheque from the London Guarantee & Accident Co. for $233.50, amount of Town's claim for Fulmer shortage in full.

Mr. Stainton, Inspector of the Fire Underwriters' Ass'n., was in town yesterday this morning. He inspected the waterworks system and the fire department. He will report to the Ass'n. and we have no doubt heard from them shortly in regard to the reduction in rates we asked for.

We were served to-day with notice of intention to take action by H. Reinhold against the Town for $7,184.43. Taxes collected on current year.

levy up to Sept. 30th were $22,454.08, which is more than we estimated.

The report was adopted. Councillors Tallman and Hill moved that the notice of the intended action of the Canadian Bank of Commerce re. Reinhold be referred to the solicitor. Carried.

Councillor Pidgeon drew attention to the number of juveniles running the streets after eight o'clock. He thought the matter should be looked into.

Councillor Tallman said there were a number of lads who made a habit of throwing stones, breaking windows and kicking up mischief. They should be arrested.

Councillor Pidgeon put through a motion instructing the Chief of Police to arrest any boy found throwing stones, breaking windows, etc., and authorizing the enforcement of the curfew by law.

Councillor Pidgeon was empowered to purchase a horse for the Town for a delivery cart.

The Council then adjourned.

The Mott sale out east has been withdrawn as everything has been settled.

J. A. Masson, postmaster, Battleford, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Stephenson last week.

Special at Michener's butcher shop for Friday next: Finnan Haddie, kippered herring, oysters and celery.

Balmoral ladies held a box social on the 29th in the school house. A good program. Proceeds go towards paying Methodist minister's salary.

Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Pye's baby boy, 14 months old, died on Monday afternoon at the family residence, Horn Hill, after a great deal of suffering.

The Bachelor Maids of Red Deer held a very pleasant dance in the Oddfellows' Hall Friday evening last. Mr. Thompson, of Olds, kindly furnished the music.

The annual meeting of the Lord's Day Alliance, Red Deer branch, will be held in the Oddfellows' Hall, Thursday evening, Nov. 4th, at 8 p.m.

The Builders of the Sunday School of the Methodist church invite you to spend an hour in their Bible Class every Sabbath afternoon at 3 o'clock. Lesson: Acts 26-28, 2nd verses.—Mrs. Graves, teacher.

Councillor Phil Pidgeon showed the editor a potato grown this year throwing out long shoots in the ground when he was digging his crop last week. This is quite out of the ordinary, and shows that potatoes like strawberries and apples are trying this year to give us two crops.

A quiet wedding took place on Monday morning last at St. Luke's church, when L. B. Griffith and Miss Dorothy H. Walker, eldest daughter of Tom Walker, of North Red Deer, were united in the holy bonds of matrimony. Fred Hart ably supported the groom while Miss Alice Walker acted as bridesmaid for the occasion. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. C. W. G. Moore.

As Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Carswell and their daughter, Mrs. F. Carr, were driving out of town Wednesday night for Horn Hill, they met with a distressing accident. One of the arms of the tongue, attached to the axle, came loose and the vehicle ran into a telephone post, throwing the occupants to the ground. Mr. Carswell had his collar bone broken, and Mrs. Carswell injured her back and was bruised about the face and head. They were taken into J. H. Dempsey's residence, where they remained for the night, and their injuries were attended to. The horses ran to the crossing of the railway, south-west of town, and turned south, following the rails for over a mile, crossing several culverts, when they stopped of their own accord and were secured later on. The democrat was not injured.

A Straight Question and a Straight Answer

Are all headaches due to eyestrain? No, they are not; but those persistent headaches, especially in the region of the eyes and across the forehead, are almost sure to arise from this cause. There is no way to secure relief from headaches of this kind except by wearing correctly fitted lenses in properly adjusted frames. Remember a "near sight" correction will not do, it must be exactly right. When you consult me in matters of this kind you have the guarantee furnished by my wide knowledge and extensive experience.

No snow yet.

H. C. Lund left for his ranch on Tuesday.

W. Logan left to take a position in Lakeview store, south of Pine Lake, last week.

W. Jenkins had a splendid yield of grain this year. Among other crops, he says his two rowed barley turned out 60 bushels to the acre.

Oh, yes, but I can always quench it with a little sherbet and water.—The Rev. John Smith in Facing the Music, act 2, Oct. 28th.

The ten cent tea by the Ladies' Guild of St. Luke's, Wednesday evening last at Mrs. Carswell's residence, was quite a success. Although the evening was wet, there was a good attendance and a jolly time was indulged in by all present.

J. F. Gaetz shipped 500 head of cattle for P. Burns & Co. from Red Deer last Wednesday, and we understand he has some five hundred yet to ship. Besides this large shipment about 1200 were shipped from Penhold and Innisfail. This makes the largest and best shipment of cattle from these three ports ever made in the history of Alberta.

The moving pictures at the Lyric were fairly well attended the past week.
